Businesses and organizations can benefit greatly from having a popular website, but once it is designed and published online, how are people going to find it?

How are you going to ensure that the right people find it?

Ideally, a business website should generate qualified leads through search engine traffic. Google, Yahoo, and Bing are tireless scouts that can bring your products or services to interested, potential clients every minute of every day.

While search engine optimization (SEO) and search engine marketing (SEM) serve the same
